DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers rostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.		Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/01/28 : CIA-RDP80-00810	DA003901260004-6 25X1
Newly Constructed KVF Earracks Installations Southwest of Strausbarg 618455 WALUATION PLACE ORTAINED DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 EFERCES I ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVFs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet coldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in nid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborare engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	n emercia suprepega signing anglaban para anglaban para anglaban para anglaban para anglaban para anglaban para	CLASSIFICATION SECREST
1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations osuthwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guerds observed then were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed. Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the XVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The latout resulting activities in the XVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The latout from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	COUNTRY_	East Germany REPORT
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 EFRENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVFs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine gus. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the XVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excepting work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	∵∂ '≀C _	Newly Constructed KVP Earracks Installations Southwest o	f ftrausberg
DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers rostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	iya ganka Maranggi daya galamiya ankara ki		618455
DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 EFFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meels. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the XVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temperarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The latorers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	MALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED	25X1
DATE PREPARED 25 March 1954 EFFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meels. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the XVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temperarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The latorers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	DATE OF CO	ONTENT	gas Malau diagrama an Lac, et la cultura est congressión, a comunical est escocies d'asse destrucción a un con
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in rid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.		25 Manah	1954
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in rid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	REFERENCE	is _	(18 na 318 na 518 na 618 n
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. About 600 KVFs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	PAGES
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. About 600 KVFs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.
This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVF installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVFs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	VILLENIA VICO
1. About 600 KVPs were still quartered in the newly constructed barracks installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excevating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	etic mich Distilluser Kamagastas indonérania. L		у стра основарада россия на неселения по досене дерення почетова почетователения советня советня советня совет installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to 10 February 1954. All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet soldiers were observed. There was no training activity. The soldiers mostly stayed in the billots. Eight of ten available field kitchens were used to prepare meals. About 20 trucks observed Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	ASIA VIV. ACCIDENT LICENSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSESSE		25X1
Building operations ceased due to cold weather. 2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.	1.	installations southwest of Strausberg from 25 January to All guards observed carried submachine guns. No Soviet so There was no training activity. The soldiers nostly stay	10 February 1954. coldiers were observed.
2. Construction activities in the KVP installation south of Strausberg almost completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.		trucks observed completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 January to 12 February 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was temporarily interrupted in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The laborers engaged in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were partitioned from the other structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400 KVPs in mid-January 1954. The soldiers were red-bordered black patches.		Building operations ceased due to cold weather.	25
	2.	completely discontinued due to cold weather from 15 Janua 1954. Excavating work at buildings 24 and 25 also was ter in mid-February 1954, but no workers were dismissed. The in clearing activities. Buildings 3, 4 and 9, which were pother structures by a fence, were occupied by 350 to 400	ary to 12 February sporarily interrupted laborers engaged martitioned from the
			25
	· v.

OF ACCIDINATION SICRE